COUNTY NEWS.

Moscow.

"If I knew you and you knew me, if both of us could clearly see, the meaning of your heart and mine, I'm sure that we would differ less. And clasp our hands in friendship, our thoughts would pleasantly agree if I knew you and you knew me."

A Baptist Missionary Rally was observed at the local church Wednesday, the services proving of much interest. Chief among the speakers was Rev. J. G. Chastain, a returned Missionary from Mexico, whose talks of the conditions in that country were of much value to those who heard him. Miss Margaret Buchanan of the Woman's Missionary Union spoke to the ladies in the afternoon, and at the night service Rev. Jas. H. Oakley of Whiteville presented Stereoscopic views of scenes in Mexico. The event should tend to greatly encourage missions, especially for Mexico, whose religious needs seem as great as any people.

Dr. Boswell of Macon was here Tuesday.

W. S. Baxter of Williston has been a guest of local friends the week past.

Miss Mary Dowdy of Salsbury spent Wednesday the guest of Mrs. J. W. Mauldin.

Another dog went the way that all stray dogs seem to be going here of late, when a hound was found dead near the office of Dr. Crook one morning of the past week. People who own valuable dogs in this community should keep them up for fear that their's will go likewise.

Mrs. J. L. Cain is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Harris.

Miss Lorene Roach who is attending the High School at Somerville, spent the Sabbath with home folks here.

Unfavorable weather kept the attendance at the dance in Owens Hall Friday night, down to a small crowd. From reliable rumors a wedding

"Bell" will soon ring out the announcement of the marriage of two well known people who have often been associated with this people.

Some one might greatly profit by building a few cheap houses in Moscow. One and two room shacks are renting at the rate of $3.50 to $4.00 per month, just about what the buildings are worth to erect. Of course the better houses are sky high—in fact house rent in Moscow is out of reason.

H. B. Sadler has recently purchased a Hup car and W. R. Bryant a Ford. Others seem to have the auto fever and may soon make selection of their favorite cars.

Fred Lewis left Monday for Hot Springs where he hopes to better his physical condition.

J. W. Sisco has bought the Turnley place from Miss Annie Pearce. This place, although desirable, has been owned by J. H. Moss, Mrs. Linnie Homes and Miss Annie Pearce, within recent years.

How lovely the beautiful things in nature, made so by the impressive touch of God. How much more, the beauty of the soul, created in the image and likeness of God. The most startling phenomenon in human nature is the spiritual indifference of man toward the soul. Think of the price that was paid for the redemption of the soul?

Cures Old Sores, Other Remedies Won't Cure.
The worst cases, no matter how long standing, are cured by the wonderful, old reliable Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. It relieves Pain and Heals at the same time. 25c, 50c, $1.00

Route Three.

Quite a crowd met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Booth on April 6 for the purpose of attending the marriage of their granddaughter, Miss Vallie Treadway, to Mr. Jimmie Morris. We congratulate Mr. Morris on his selection of such a worthy young lady. She is much admired by her teachers, classmates, friends and all who know her personally. Mr. Morris is a trustworthy young man. His character has won for him many friends. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. W. A. Bishop. We wish them a successful life.

Misses Mamie Conn and Loucille Chambers visited Miss Girtie Parks Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Fannie Belle Davis visited home folks Saturday and Sunday. Our canning club meets every two weeks. We hope to have Miss Catron with us next meeting day.

Little Gracie Bishop spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Davis, near Williston.

Aubrey Davis was a visitor on Route Three Sunday. ROSE BUD.

Fair View.

It is corn testing time and the annual boom is on. It is the time of year when the children and grown-ups too are contemplating Easter which is a day sacred to the egg.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard of Rossville, were the pleasant guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Crawford Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Mollie Johnson and son, Ernest, of New Bethel were in our midst Friday afternoon.

Several young men in our vicinity have purchased new rubber tire buggies. Wonder what pretty girls will accept the first rides?

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Murphy of Elba, were looking after business interests here one day last week.

Mrs. Ben Pippin of Memphis spent the past week end with relatives here. Mrs. Lula Scott of New Bethel spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. A. T. Crawford.

Miss Mary Burnett and Alva Sisco, of Moscow, were mingling among friends and relatives here Sunday.

Miss Agnes Hewlett was the guest of her cousin, Miss Anne Belle Scott, of New Bethel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Butler and Mrs. J. B. Murphy were Sunday visitors in home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Murphy, of Elba.

Life may be lottery, but a wise man takes no chances.

If all of Fayette county's citizens would look after our roads we are quite sure they would be much better improved.

Don't let's forget the County Fair in October.

Any news of interest any time will be appreciated by the correspondent.

To Drive Out Malaria And Build Up The System
Take the Old Standard GROVE'S TASTELESS chill TONIC. You know what you are taking, as the formula is printed on every label, showing it is Quinine and Iron in a tasteless form. The Quinine drives out malaria, the Iron builds up the system. 50 cents.

An Octogenarian Gone.

J. B. Murphy died at his home in district No. 11, on Wednesday afternoon, March 22, 1916, after an illness of only a few days.

Mr. Murphy was born in the State of North Carolina November 8th, 1832. He came with his parents to Fayette county when quite young, where he spent his remaining years.

In 1859 he married Miss Paulina Ann Yancey, of Fayette county, and to this union were born eleven children, three boys and eight girls, eight of whom are yet living. Several years after the death of his wife he married Miss Lula Burnett, of Moscow, Tennessee.

In 1861 when the call to arms was sounded he instantly obeyed and during the entire four years of conflict he was found in the service of his beloved Southland, having been in several battles under General Forrest.

Early in life he identified himself with the M. E. church and was very efficient and steadfast as a member. For many years he was Superintendent of the Sunday school and no one enjoyed that branch of church work more than he did.

Mr. Murphy was a true Southern gentleman, being one of Fayette county's oldest citizens, he lived an honorable and useful life. His generosity knew no bounds. His devotion to his church was beautiful in its constancy. Mr. Murphy was not disposed to complain when he knew his time on earth was spent. He knew he had not been deprived of his just dues, having lived a good many years over the allotted age of man.

The Lord in his Providence permitted him to die at home, to be ministered to by loving hands, and during his illness he was so anxious for all of his children to be at his bedside, and all of them were there to make him as comfortable, and give him such attention as watchful love could suggest. Funeral service was conducted at the family home by Rev. P. A. Fowler of Germantown, and interment was in Good Springs cemetery by the side of his wife. The high esteem in which this good man was held was evidenced by the large assemblage of friends attending his funeral, paying to him the last tribute of respect, which fact was further evidenced by the many beautiful flowers placed by kind hands on his grave.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

as mercury will simply destroy the sense of touch and completely destroy the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on severe cases in which the physician, as the danger they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It cures Catarrh, Cure be sure you get an accurate. It is taken internally and made in Toledo Ohio by F. J. Cheney & Co., Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. Weber-Whitworth.

Yesterday at high noon in the Presbyterian Church at Hickory Withe, Tenn., Miss Mary Agnes Weber was united in marriage to Mr. Sam Hudson Whitworth, the Rev. O. Wardlaw officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns, smilax and Easter lilies.

The bride was never more lovely than in her suit of midnight blue cloth with hat and accessories in harmony, and carrying a shower bouquet of Bride roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Annie Weber, sister of the bride, wore a charming blue frock and carried Russell roses.

The groom's best man was Mr. J. A. Weber, uncle of the bride, and the ushers were Messrs. F. T. Ivy, D. H. Shoffner, J. E. Shoffner and C. P. Bennett.

The wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Finis Rogers who presided at the organ, and the Rev. C. A. Harper, who just before the ceremony sang "To You" and "Answer."

Mr. and Mrs. Whitworth left immediately after the wedding for Nashville and other points of interest. On their return they will be at home to their friends at Hickory Withe, Tenn.

The above clipping from Wednesday's Commercial-Appeal announces the wedding of two of this county's most prominent young people. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Weber of Hickory Withe, and is a young lady of charming disposition and culture and education. The groom is an employe of A. Weber & Co., and his several years of service in the office of that strong firm attests the high esteem in which he is held by them as a business man.

Mrs. J. A. Carter.

On Friday April 7, 1916, at 4:40 p. m., Mrs. Sallie T. Jones Carter, wife of J. A. Carter, died at her home near Oakland, Tennessee. She had been a long and patient sufferer. She leaves a husband, three sons and one dear faithful daughter whose hearts are broken with grief. But, dear ones, there has been a place prepared for you. Look to Jesus who is able to comfort your troubled souls, and may God give you grace to bear this heavy burden. Our Heavenly Father is ever ready to guide and comfort in every time of need.

Rev. J. H. Oakley, of Whiteville, conducted the funeral services in the Baptist church in Oakland of which she was a faithful member. May the Lord bless and comfort these loved ones in my prayer. A. C.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect The Head
Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE. 25c.

See the Demonstration Plots

J. W. Moffatt, county demonstration agent, has arranged a trip of observation and inspection to take place on April 25 and 26, taking in the northern part of the county on the first day and the southern part the second day. He is anxious for farmers and business men in the county to see what certain farmers are doing in way of winter cover crops, alfalfa, grass and clover plots, stock, etc. and for this purpose he has arranged with a number of automobile owners to use their cars on those dates to carry any who want to go. The first day's itinerary has been definitely arranged as follows: Leave Somerville 7:30 a. m., going to L. F. Catron's, E. V. Hall's, A. H. Harvey's, R. B. Young's, J. A. McNabb's, E. C. Boswell's, J. A. D. Moore's, W. H. Claxton's, by Galloway, and then by the farms of C. C. Russell and E. V. Luck in the seventh district, back by Oakland and to Somerville.

The second day's itinerary will take in the southern part of the county where are some of the best plots of these crops, not alone in this county, but in the state, and will be equally as interesting as the first day. Those who want to take the trip can arrange with Mr. Moffatt, and the trip will be absolutely free.

Told That There Was No Cure for Him.

"After suffering for over twenty years with indigestion and having some of the best doctors here tell me there was no cure for me, I think it only right to tell you for the sake of other sufferers as well as for your own satisfaction that a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets not only relieved me but cured me within two months although I am a man of 65 years," writes J. J. Grobier, Houston, Texas. For sale by all dealers. 5-1
